

We plant the seeds that
one day will grow.

We water seeds already planted,
knowing that they hold future promise.

We lay foundations that will need further development.

We provide yeast that produces far beyond our capabilities

“The best description that comes to mind is that the Mission is an oasis in the middle of the desert. What a contrast in the faces of those outside the Mission as compared to those who are part of the Mission.

There was no doubt that Jesus’ work has been and continues to be done at the Mission.”

Mike and Tommye Halpen
March 2008

“The Mission’s only priest is Fr. Glenn Meaux, and for eighteen years he has built an extraordinary place of refuge, productivity, peace and hope for some fifteen hundred families.

The astounding revelation for me was that the success of this Mission is not the church there - it doesn’t have one.

Fr. Meaux has decided that the education, the feeding and well being of these children is the focus of his missionary activity. A small industry has grown up centering on the school.

The school is not only the source of their education, but also of nourishment, and ultimately of hope to break the cycle of poverty.”
